

*Design a Forest

Each child is given the imaginary deed to an area of land on which they can create their fantasy forest with trees, plants, animals, rivers etc. Ask them to list the things they want in their forest and then ask them to draw/paint it.

When they have finished ask them to consider whether their forests are sustainable – do they have all the ingredients to survive. Have they considered soil and climate?

